Key Takeaways

Cable tray tees in India start from around ₹150 per piece, with prices varying by material, size, and supplier.

Price Range and Suppliers

Cable tray tees are available from multiple suppliers with competitive pricing. Some of the most affordable options include Global Manufacturers And Traders starting at ₹150 per piece, Bajiya Industrial Corporation Private Limited at ₹160 per piece, and Beeco Storage Systems at ₹170 per piece (as of June 30, 2026). Prices can vary depending on the material (galvanized steel, stainless steel, etc.) and dimensions of the tee.

Material and Size Considerations Hot-dip galvanized steel tees are commonly used for ladder-type cable trays and are priced per piece. Stainless steel (SS304) tees with brushed finishes are available for specialized applications, such as washdown areas, and may cost more. Tee sizes can range from small 4x4 inches to larger 12x12 inches, affecting the price.

Ordering and Payment

Suppliers often have minimum order quantities and accept various payment methods including cash, bank transfer, credit card, and online payments. Bulk orders may qualify for discounts, and contacting suppliers directly is recommended to get the latest pricing and delivery details.

Online Purchase Options

Cable tray tees can also be purchased online from platforms like TradeSparky and IndiaMART, which provide product specifications, brand options, and direct supplier contacts. For accurate budgeting, it is advisable to confirm the latest price with the supplier, considering the material, size, and quantity required.
