Tips for Purchasing

Compare suppliers: Prices can vary significantly between Cablofil distributors and local manufacturers. Consider size and material: Larger trays or those made from stainless steel or aluminum may cost more but offer longer lifespan. Bulk orders: Many suppliers offer discounts for larger quantities.

Installation needs: Some trays come with pre-drilled mounting options, which can reduce labor costs. For the most accurate pricing, it is recommended to contact suppliers directly with your required dimensions and quantities. This ensures you receive up-to-date quotes and any available promotions.
