

China's optical fiber cables

Overview

China Top 10 Fiber Optic Cable Manufacturers in 2025 This guide ranks China's top 10 fiber optic cable manufacturers for 2025, based on market share, production capacity, and technological innovation.

Key Takeaways

China produces over 60% of the world's optical fiber, leading in innovation, production scale, and global exports. Market Overview China's optical fiber cable market is a global powerhouse, valued at over USD 10 billion as of 2025, with annual output exceeding 1.5 billion core-kilometers and accounting for more than half of global production capacity (per Mordor Intelligence).

The industry supports high-speed networks, 5G and 6G infrastructure, smart cities, and data centers. By 2030, China is projected to host 13 of the world's top 20 fiber optic cable manufacturers, with production capacity reaching 2 billion core-kilometers annually.

Technological Advancements

China has pioneered several innovations in optical fiber technology: Ultra-low-loss fibers: G. 654. E fibers with attenuation as low as 0.16 dB/km for long-haul and submarine applications. Multi-core cables: Up to 576 fibers per cable, supporting 400 Gbps+ via WDM. Three-band ultra-low-loss multi-core cables: China Mobile launched the world's first S+C+L three-band optical cable, enhancing bandwidth and reducing signal loss.

Hollow-core fibers and AI-optimized cables: Designed for high-performance computing and low-latency networks. Leading Manufacturers China's top manufacturers combine vertical integration, R&D, and global reach: YOFC (Yangtze Optical Fibre and Cable): Largest producer, 300 million core-km annual capacity, exports to 100+ countries, specializes in ultra-low-loss and submarine cables.

Hengtong Optic-

Electric: Focuses on terrestrial and submarine networks, G. 654. E fibers, and smart grid solutions.

ZT

T (Zhongtian Technology): Leader in OPGW and submarine power cables, active in Belt and Road projects.

Fiber

Home Technologies: Offers integrated solutions combining passive fiber optics with active networking equipment. Futong Group: Pioneer in vertical integration from preforms to finished cables, serving high-volume duct FO and residential broadband.

ZT

O Cable: Hainan-based, emphasizes end-to-end infrastructure solutions, high-density FTTH/FTTA, and rapid global logistics. Other notable players include FS.com, Dekam-Fiber, Tongding, and Wuhan Wolon, each excelling in data center solutions, cost-effective FTTH deployments, and customized high-density cables.

Production and Supply Chain

Chinese manufacturers benefit from: Vertical integration: From silica preforms to finished cables, ensuring quality and cost efficiency.
