Considerations for Direct Supply

Certifications: Ensure suppliers have ISO, UL, CE, or ROHS certifications for international compliance. Minimum Order Quantities: Varies by manufacturer; some require container-level orders, while others accept smaller bulk orders. Shipping and Export: Most manufacturers provide international shipping and can handle customs documentation.

Customization: Fiber pigtails can be customized in length, connector type (LC, SC, ST, FC, E2000, MTRJ, MPO), and polish type (APC or UPC) depending on project requirements. For direct procurement, it is recommended to contact manufacturers via their official websites or B2B platforms, request quotations, and verify certifications to ensure quality and compliance with international standards.
