

Moldova Fireproof Cable Tray Manufacturer

Overview

Since 1982, VALDINOX has been designing and manufacturing wire mesh cable trays, supports, and easy-installation accessories. Since then, we have dedicated all our experience and technical...

Key Takeaways

Top fireproof cable tray options in Moldova include Brilltech Engineers, Cable House, and international brands like Legrand, offering galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass trays compliant with fire safety standards.

Local Manufacturers and Suppliers

Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. supplies high-quality cable trays in Moldova, including fire-resistant options made from galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass. Their trays are designed to protect cables from physical damage, dust, and environmental hazards while promoting airflow to prevent overheating, ensuring compliance with safety standards.

Cable House is another prominent Moldovan supplier, offering durable and reliable cable trays manufactured with advanced technologies and graded raw materials. Their products are designed for long operating life and meet industry norms for fire safety and electrical compliance.

International Brands Available in Moldova

Legrand (France) provides the Cablofil wire mesh trays, which are widely recognized for their fire-resistant properties and adaptability for industrial and commercial installations. These trays are suitable for data centers, telecommunications, and infrastructure projects requiring high safety standards. Other global suppliers accessible through B2B marketplaces include Atkore International, Thomas & Betts (ABB Group), and Eaton B-Line, offering heavy-duty, fireproof cable trays suitable for industrial, energy, and commercial applications.

Key Features to Consider

Material: Galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass are preferred for fire resistance. Tray Type: Ladder, perforated, and mesh trays provide different levels of airflow and load capacity. Compliance: Ensure trays meet IEC, ISO 9001, UL, or local Moldovan fire safety standards.

Support Services: Many suppliers offer installation guidance, system design, and customization for specific project needs.

Conclusion

For fireproof cable tray solutions in Moldova, Brilltech Engineers and Cable House are reliable local options, while Legrand and other international brands provide high-quality, compliant alternatives. Selecting the right tray depends on your project's load requirements, fire safety standards, and material preferences.
